III. Cookies

What are cookies?

Cookies, also referred to as trackers, are files stored by a server on the user's terminal (computer, smartphone, digital tablet, or internet-connected gaming console) and associated with a domain name. This file is automatically sent back during subsequent interactions with the same domain.

The purpose of cookies is to facilitate navigation on a website by recording your preferences and previous actions. For example, the ability to stay logged in to a website so you don't have to enter your login information each time or the choice to view a website in a specific language or theme.

Our website currently uses "technical" cookies as well as cookies capable of collecting browsing data for the purpose of establishing anonymous browsing statistics.

The information collected about visitors includes geographic location, the type of device used, and events that occurred during their visit to the Site.

The following events are measured:

Page views when modifying the browser's history

Detect a page view event whenever the website changes the state of the browser's history.

Scroll events

Detect scroll events whenever a visitor reaches the bottom of the page.

Outbound clicks

Detect an outbound click event whenever a visitor clicks on a link to a different domain from the current domain.

Interactions with forms

Detect an interaction or form submission event whenever a user interacts with a form on the site.

Engagement with video

Detect a video playback event (partial or complete) when a visitor watches embedded videos on your site.

File downloads

Detect a file download event each time a link associated with a common extension (document, compressed file, application, video, or audio) is clicked.

The collected browsing data is retained for a period of 6 months.

Cookie Settings

Users can allow or refuse the storage of cookies on their terminal using the appropriate settings in their browser.

Here's how to configure cookie acceptance with the most commonly used browsers:"

- For Chrome : click here
- For Firefox : click here

- For Opera : click here
- For Safari : click here

Refusal to accept the storage of certain technical cookies may result in site malfunction.

IV. User Rights

As a user of the Site, you have the right to modify, access, delete, and port your provided data, as well as the right to object to the processing of your data. You can exercise your rights at the following email address: karen@tokenomeme.wtf

If your request to exercise your rights is refused, you will be promptly informed of the reasons and possible remedies.

You also have the right to file a complaint with the National Commission for Data Protection and Liberties (CNIL) at the following address: <https://www.cnil.fr/plaintes>.

V. Updates

We may update this policy periodically to reflect changes in our practices or for legal reasons.

VI. Contact Person

For any questions regarding the processing of your personal data by the Data Controller, you can contact us at the following address: karen@tokenomeme.wtf
